Spring Scholarship Evening

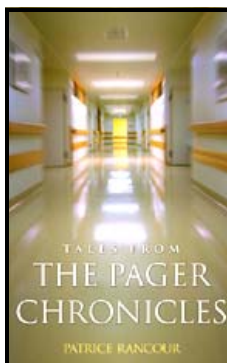

Sigma Theta Tau International, Honor Society of Nursing has undertaken a mission to provide leadership and scholarship in nursing practice; to promote education and research to enhance the health of all people; and to support professional development to improve nursing care throughout the world. In support of this mission, Sigma Theta Tau International has been at the forefront of advancements in nursing scholarship.

In Central Ohio, a consortium of Sigma Theta Tau International chapters collaborates to promote nursing scholarship, leadership, research, education, and professional development at the annual Spring Scholarship Evening.

Please join the Central Ohio Consortium on Wednesday, April 22, 2009, for an evening of collegial sharing, learning, and dining. Plan to arrive during the registration hour for a poster display, networking opportunities, product sales from Sigma Theta Tau International, and a book signing by the guest speaker, Patrice Rancour, MS, RN, CS. The dinner options include either spinach and mozzarella stuffed chicken with a light tomato cream sauce or far-falle pasta with asparagus, red peppers, onions, and button mushrooms in a chardonnay cream.

After dinner, Patrice Rancour, MS, RN, CS, will present "Tales from the Pager Chronicles: Readings from the Bedside." She will share her insights into the gifts that she has received from caring for individuals who have allowed her an entrance into their journeys of conscious living and conscious dying.

Patrice Rancour has been in the health care field for 35 years as a clinician, educator, and consultant. Her clinical specialty is psychiatric/mental health and she continues to maintain a private practice in addition to providing worksite wellness services to employees at The Ohio State University.
